

Basic Federal Income Tax Assistant

Hashim Hachem
November 6, 2023

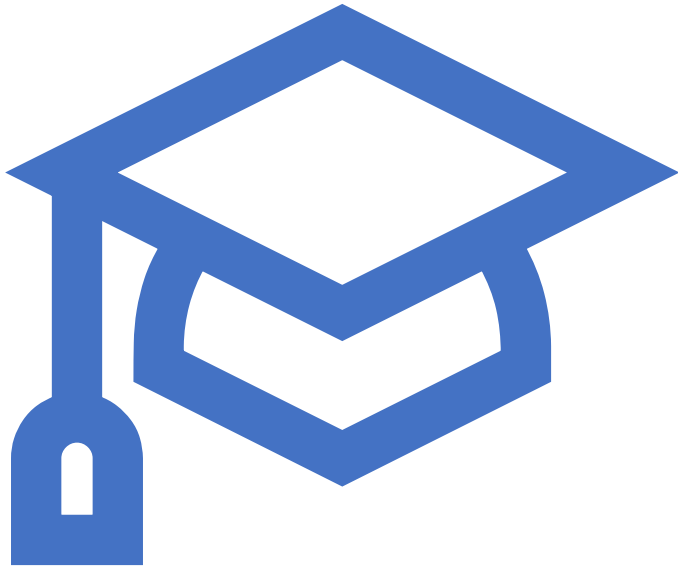

The Challenge

- Existing websites don't align with course material
- Outdated resources
- Complex Tax Calculators
- The Basic in “Basic Federal Income Tax”

Who Benefits?

- Law Students taking Basic Federal Income Tax
- Law Students who may struggle with mathematics
- Specifically tailored to course objectives

Current Options

Paywalled resources
(e.g, CourseHero, Quizlet, e.t.c)

Outdated free study
guides

Lack of digital companions for learning supplements
& books

My solution

- The Basic Federal Income Tax Assistant
- Free, relevant, and up-to-date content
- Intended to complement course materials

Key Features

CHATBOT FOR DETERMINING TAX
LIABILITY

PRACTICE EXAMS AND QUESTIONS FROM COURSE MATERIALS

DOCUMENT ANALYSIS FOR IRS CODE EXTRACTION

AI-POWERED Q&A SYSTEM
FOR COURSE RELATED QUESTIONS

Current Development Progress

- Currently ~75% complete
- Utilizes JavaScript, RegEx, and LLMs to enhance the learning experience
- All code, including the LLM, runs client-side
 - No API keys are necessary

In Conclusion

- Website serves as an educational companion
- Provide students with resources to excel in Basic Federal Income Tax